

Statement to the Media by A/SASG Bутtenheim

“The leaders met in a positive and friendly atmosphere.

They engaged in a discussion on the substance of the negotiations and on methodology, and exchanged views and proposals on confidence-building measures and Technical Committees.

The leaders agreed to jointly visit the anthropological laboratory of the Committee on Missing Persons on a date to be agreed in the near future.

They will continue their discussions at the next meeting on Monday, 7 July.”
